The Elizabeth Fry Society of Greater Vancouver (EFry) is a charitable organization that supports women, girls, and children at risk, involved in or affected by the justice system. Our programs work to break the cycle of poverty, addiction, mental illness, homelessness, and crime.

We are recruiting for an Expressive Arts Facilitator for our A'mut program. A'mut is a specialized residential program for Aboriginal girls who are considered at risk and are struggling with addiction. The philosophy is one of self-direction and independence, with individual treatment and goal planning focusing on developing a variety of coping skills and self-reliance.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Develops group expressive arts programs based on the case plan.
- Manages inventory for the expressive arts program.
- Assists with data collection, projects, reports, and other tasks as assigned.
- Documents session details using nucleus notes.
- Provides detailed client reports, maintains accurate records, and ensures confidentiality.
- Attends staff training and relevant public events; may participate in prevention activities.
- Performs other related duties as needed.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Certification or diploma in expressive therapies (Art, Music, Dance Movement) or related field (e.g., recreational therapy).
- 1-3 years of experience with individuals with substance misuse preferred.
- Experience in community social services and knowledge of community-based programs and support services is a plus.
- Skilled in facilitating groups and individuals.
- Knowledgeable in using multimedia and expressive arts for therapy.
- Aware of how age, socioeconomic, and cultural factors affect clients and able to work respectfully in a diverse environment.
- Understanding of Indigenous culture and its impact on substance use, trauma, and justice issues.
- Capable of redirecting clients and setting clear limits on inappropriate behavior.

MANDATORY JOB REQUIREMENTS:

- Standard First Aid with CPR-C.
- Evidence of a Tuberculosis Test and compliance with the TB Control Program.
- Doctor's Note of fitness required.
- Satisfactory Criminal Record Review (Vulnerable Sector Search)
- Valid driver's license (Class 5) with satisfactory driving record.

Benefits:

- Company events
- Employee assistance program
- Casual Dress

EFry is committed to creating an inclusive and equitable environment where all those participating in the organization are valued for their differences. We encourage and welcome applications from all qualified individuals, including applicants from all cultures and backgrounds, racialized communities, indigenous communities, diverse sexual and gender identities, various religious backgrounds, women, and those with disabilities. We are committed to a selection process and work environment that is inclusive and barrier-free. We encourage applicants to self-identify if they wish to do so.
